

Top 3 News in the Last 24 Hours

Trump seeks to set aside his New York hush money guilty verdict after Supreme Court immunity ruling - The Associated Press

Donald Trump's lawyers have sent a letter to the New York judge in his hush money criminal case seeking permission to file a motion to set aside his guilty verdict. The letter to Judge Juan M. Merchan cites the U.S. Supreme Court's Monday ruling on presidential immunity.

Read more: <https://apnews.com/article/trump-hush-money-supreme-court-immunity-3d97d2e9497a5a208c1309aec7a0cd6a>

Gregg Berhalter guides USA soccer to Copa America failure: Three reasons why it's time to move on - CBS Sports

Following up a solid World Cup with this type of Copa America, changes are needed

Read more: <https://www.cbssports.com/soccer/news/gregg-berhalter-guides-usa-soccer-to-copa-america-failure-three-reasons-why-its-time-to-move-on/>

Chandrayaan's rover makes significant discoveries on Moon's south pole - Business Standard

The Chandrayaan-3 mission's Pragyan rover found small rock fragments scattered around the rim, wall slopes, and floor of small craters in the southern high-latitude landing area

Read more: https://www.business-standard.com/india-news/chandrayaan-s-rover-makes-significant-discoveries-on-moon-s-south-pole-124070200814_1.html